

John's dream.

1 Once upon a time, in a small village, there lived a boy called John. He was a nice, kind boy,
2 but he was unhappy because he was very poor. John only had his mother, because his
3 father had died when he was a baby. John's mother was a hardworking lady and felt
4 fortunate to have such a helpful son.

5 When John started school, he studied hard. He dreamt of being rich so he could help his 6 mother and give money to other poor children.

7 After primary school, John wanted to go to secondary school, but, where they lived,
8 education was very expensive, and his mother couldn't afford it. John got a job and started
9 saving up.

10 Finally, after two long years of hard work, he had enough money for secondary school, so he
11 continued with his studies. Four years later, he gained his qualifications and got a good job.

12 Some time later, John opened his own business.

13 After 5 years, he was very rich. His dream had come true; he could support his mother and 14 share his wealth with other poor kids. John was delighted and truly proud of himself.

By Edgaras Slavinkas, Kirklees College

