

Rosa's Life

1 Once upon a time there was a beautiful girl. Her name was Rosa. She was the second
2 youngest child of eight siblings; she had three brothers and four sisters.

3 Rosa belonged to a very poor family. Her father was a farmer and he raised his family as a
4 single parent. It was a very difficult task for him, but he was a hardworking man and he 5 continued to do his best.

6 Rosa's brothers were well-educated and had good jobs. Rosa was a good student and 7 wanted to go to university. When she was sixteen, however, her father died.

8 She loved her father very much and was shocked by his sudden death. She would have 9 liked to forget his death, but she could not.

10 After one year, she went to university for higher education, as she had planned to do. At 11 university, she met an intelligent boy and fell in love with him. She wanted to marry him. His 12 name was Nissan.

13 Rosa decided to tell Nissan about her love for him and about how she wanted to be his wife.
14 He laughed at her for this and said that he wasn't interested in her. He also told her that he 15 was already married with two children. He explained that he loved his wife very much and 16 didn't want to leave his family for her. Nissan said, "I am your good friend but I couldn't be 17 your husband." Rosa was devastated by this difficult and complex situation.

18 Again, Rosa wanted to forget about what had happened; this time she wanted to forget
19 about Nissan. But, again, she couldn't forget. As a result, she decided to leave university
20 and spend her time at home. She was very depressed; she believed her life was over. Six or 21 seven months after leaving university, she was hospitalised.

22 Some time later, Nissan received a letter, and was surprised and shocked to read of her
23 death. He discovered that Rosa had wanted to leave this world, because she loved him so 24 much that she couldn't live without him.
