F: Hello Adrienne.

A: Hello Fiona, how are you?

F: I'm fine, good, erm, Amy would like to know if Rebecca would like to come to play after school tonight and stay for tea?

A: Oh, that's a shame, she's playing football tonight but I'm sure she would love to come. How about Friday?

F: Yeah, I think that'll be OK. Would I pick her up from school?

A: Yeah, that'd be great, thank you.

F: Now is there anything she doesn't eat?

A: Yes. We're vegetarian so she doesn't eat meat or fish, I'm afraid.

F: OK, well, what about pasta?

A: Oh she loves pasta, that'd be great. Yes. Thank you.

F: OK that's fine then, OK I'll erm, I'll take her home and will you pick her up?

A: Yes. What time shall I pick her up?

F: Erm, about half past seven?

A: Yes, that's great and where do you live?

F: We live at 4 Heatherfield Lane in Harpenden, just off Sun Lane.

A: Oh right, yes, I know it. So about half past seven on Friday, that'll be great, thank you.

F: OK that's lovely, Bye

A: Bye
